Naruto that I will share this time is Naruto Mugen Storm 5 Naruto Mugen Storm 5 does not require a high PC specs, therefore not a few people who like Naruto Mugen PC.. Lots of fans of this anime then no wonder if many who like the Game. This makes these games pretty unique, but unfortunately its also the main reason of the lack of balance - especially if were talking about AI.. This is an unofficial, fan website in no way related to anyone that owns the rights to these awesome characters.. Youll find here over 100 playable characters and 71 different stages which is an impressive amount.

The entire content of the game has many creators because Mugen games usually use the work of other fans and put together by one or two persons.. There are many series released by Bandai, and next time I will share one of Naruto games for you but this is not from Bandai.. There are many characters in this Naruto Mugen, like Sasuke, Temari, Gaara and the others.. You can fight with other ninjas one by one in the classic Arcade mode, check the limit of your skills in Survival mode, as well as invite your friend and fight with each other or make a team and face opponents controlled by computer AI together.
